We are asking Your presence here today, as these men and women study, plan, debate and make laws that will affect the lives of all who live in this great State and are influenced by it.

As we do our work today, we will remember that You sit in the chambers and gallery watching over us.

With that awareness, we do our work not just for our district, our committee, our chamber...but also for the responsible shaping of destiny for which we are accountable.

With all our diversity, we wish to be united in our accountability before You.

Forgive us our excesses, our presumptuousness, our pettiness...and take what we do to bless the people we represent.

We pray in the names of Abraham, Isaac, Jacob and Jesus Christ our Lord. Amen.
